

Pickle in the Middle Rules

How to play:

Put a pile of pennies in the center of the table. Cut out pickles. Place pickles upside-down.

1. Child picks a pickle and then the adult reads the sentence.
2. Child takes a penny for every rhyming word they can remember.

Goal: To increase listening skills: identify rhyming words, improve auditory memory and get the most pennies!

© 2005 Magic Penny Reading accessed from www.magicpennyreading.com

I thinky I smell something stinky said the skunk as he wiggled his pinky.

My pet porcupine borrowed a nickel to purchase a pickle to tickle.

I couldn't help but stare at the big bear over there eating a pear that he won't share.

I knew two ducks who had tiny blue trucks that they bought for ten bucks.

Mean Queen Jean just ate the biggest green bean
I've ever seen!

Sheep don't make a peep when they sleep in a purple jeep.

Two whales ate the fourteen snails that were hammering nails in the bottom of our pails.

On her way to town, the Queen sat down with a frown because she tore her brown gown .

If you don't know how to fly, you can try to touch the sky, but I think it is too high.

A dragon stole my wagon before, when I stopped and shopped at the Betty Spaghetti Store.

The banana bandana that I gave to Hannah got burned when the dragon returned.

I saw a mean green fellow eating gobs of yellow Jell-O.

I saw an ape wearing a cape while eating a purple grape.

My brother will try to eat ten pieces of pie that he went to the bakery to buy.

A prancing pig wore a big wig while dancing a jig and eating a fig.

I have to bake a cake to take to the lake when I go fishing with Jake.

A hog saw my dog chase a frog onto a log down by the bog.

The funny bunny needed some money to buy a jar of runny honey.

The fat cat sat on a mat and watched a rat who was wearing a red hat.

When did you ever see a hen use a red pen to sign a check for a couple of men?

When you go food shopping don't tickle the pickles, squeeze the cheese or sneeze on the peas.

When you go to shop don't lean on a bean, drop the pop or fall over the mop.

Don't handle the candles, put your feet on a beet or drop the meat in the street.

We were floating down the Nile for quite a while before we saw a crocodile.

Write your own rhyming pickle sentence.

Handwriting practice lines consisting of a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line, repeated twice.

Write your own rhyming pickle sentence.

Handwriting practice lines consisting of a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line, repeated twice.

Write your own rhyming pickle sentence.

Handwriting practice lines consisting of a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line, repeated twice.

Write your own rhyming pickle sentence.

Handwriting practice lines consisting of a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line, repeated twice.

Write your own rhyming pickle sentence.

Handwriting practice lines consisting of a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line, repeated twice.